Overview

This was a very successful but risky visit that delivered the essential equipment requested by the L'viv team (generators and heaters) and identified additional requirements for direct financial support, and further deliveries of equipment.

The situation in L'viv is unstable. Two missiles struck targets just 1km from our drop-off a few hours before we arrived. Five more were shot down.

We were made aware of this strike while still inbound to Ukraine but decided to cross the border and continue to the drop-off point because the recon element of the trip was deemed essential, and because the Ukrainian team has no transport capabilities and could not meet us halfway.

Where else has your aid gone?

Those refugees who have no place to go are housed in a nearby shelter which we are also supporting. They range from babies to the elderly. Many are disabled from birth.

No military personnel are present.

Next steps

During the visit we identified two Ukrainian team members in particular need of financial support. Our plan for the next stage of the project is to deliver this support at a rate of £250 per month per person, while also raising funds for our next delivery of several additional generators in late January 2022.

We have gone ahead and purchased 4 medium generators but hope to add more to the next consignment.

This follow-on activity will focus on the 150 refugees housed in the shelter, who will very likely suffer this winter if left unaided.

Conclusion

We take exactly zero in management salaries or payouts. We believe in direct action, identifying specific people in need and helping them in tangible ways, while documenting and auditing where our aid is going and who is benefiting from it.

If you would like to continue to support us, perhaps via a monthly donation, we will provide you with ongoing updates and images showing exactly how your contribution is being used to help people.

Regardless of whether you decide to continue, we want to thank you for your very kind support for this initiative so far.
